The Kingston Academy Home-School Agreement

TKA will go beyond what schools ordinarily do, providing an excellent and enriching curriculum for children in our community. The partnership which enables this to happen involves the school, the parents and the pupils working towards this common aim. Our Home-School Agreement calls for commitment from the school, the parents / carers and the pupils.

➤ The Commitment - The School

So that every pupil is successful, we will:

- ✓ communicate with parents and pupils
- ✓ ensure the development of personal and social skills
- ✓ demand regular attendance and excellent punctuality
- ✓ reward and monitor progress
- ✓ set regular, demanding homework
- ✓ provide interesting, rewarding extra-curricular activities
- ✓ nurture pupils to become fulfilled, well rounded citizens of the future

➤ The Commitment - The Pupil

So that you can be successful as a pupil, you must:

- ✓ work hard to succeed in all aspects of school life
- ✓ be structured and focused with homework completion
- ✓ ask questions of your teachers to support your learning
- ✓ take a responsible approach to Chromebook use and the educational benefits of ICT
- ✓ attend school regularly with excellent punctuality
- ✓ wear the correct school uniform at all times
- ✓ be fair and respectful to others
- ✓ enjoy learning and take pride in a job well done

➤ The Commitment - The Parents / Carers

So that your child is successful, parents / carers will:

- ✓ show clearly your support for the school and its beliefs, vision and values
- ✓ attend parents' evenings and School meetings
- ✓ contact us if or when you have concerns so as we can work together
- ✓ ensure regular attendance and punctuality
- ✓ ensure that your child wears the correct school uniform at all times
- ✓ ensure that the school rules and standards of behaviour are maintained
- ✓ reinforce key messages about E-safety
- ✓ oversee the completion of homework
